

Customs Compliance Specialist experienced and entry level candidates with knowledge of (or are interested in learning about) the U.S. Harmonized Tariff Schedules (USHTS), other country tariffs, Free Trade Agreements, and the U.S. Customs Regulations.

Location: Michigan

Primary Responsibilities:

- Experience working in the customs & international trade industry
- Key skills in tariff classification, FTA qualification, valuation, etc
- Applicants with accounting, engineering, manufacturing, purchasing, or logistics fields

Qualifications:

- Applicants must possess a professional positive attitude, be a self-starter
- Have a strong sense of ownership, be respectful and responsible
- Be able to demonstrate good organization skills and be dedicated to outstanding client service.
- Be prepared to join a team of like-minded dedicated professionals that work hard, are creative, while providing a fun and energetic work place.

Additional Information:

- Flexible work schedule
- Extensive training program
- Exciting career in the growing field of customs & international trade

Apply Now