

Export Compliance Engineer will work with engineering teams to understand and classify the products (hardware, software and technology) that the CLIENT exports and will serve as one of the primary GTC point of contact for determinations, training, and support worldwide.

Location: California, Oregon, Virginia, New Hampshire, Maryland, with potential to WFH.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Determinations and supporting the development of processes for making determinations
- Storing all determinations and related records
- Providing access to determinations to company employees and partners and ensuring determinations are migrated into SAP and other ERP systems as needed.
- Applicant also will provide support for SAP GTS export controls as well as other projects for the GTC team.
- Prepare, submit, and support related government filings, including encryption reports, CCATS, and requests.

Qualifications:

- Background in engineering or related field
- Proficient in performing determinations for US, Canada and EU jurisdictions
- Experience with SAP and GTS
- Thorough understanding of military and dual use US and EU export regulations, particularly export classifications
- Bachelor's degree from an accredited university or college
- Minimum of 5 additional years of experience in Global Trade Compliance, Engineering, or related experience
- Preferred experience in high-tech or thermal Industry
- Preferred experience working with U.S. government agency on export-related matters

Apply Now