

Manager of Global Trade Compliance is responsible for import and export compliance activities and reports to Logistics Manager. This position will act as a subject matter expert for all import and export trade compliance matters for the organization. This person will be accountable for all customs and export related operations and compliance with all import-export laws, provide strategic advice to the company on trade matters (both operations, tactical, and strategic), and orchestrate a global export-import compliance program.

Location: Nevada

Primary Responsibilities:

- Serve as key subject matter expert (SME) for the corporation in terms of export and import regulations, compliance, classification, licensing, and any and all other trade related functions
- Develop, implement, and enforce a comprehensive Trade Compliance Program (both imports and exports) for The Client to include:
 - Policies and procedures as it relates to all import and export activities, deemed exports, technology transfers, etc.
 - Import/export compliance training for The Client personnel
 - Creation, rollout, and enforcement of internal and external audit program for all import/export operations and activities
 - Enforcement of policies, procedures, standard operating procedures, etc. across the organization and with 3rd party providers
 - Update program as required
- Manage Customs/import compliance program and Customs Brokers
- Maintains awareness of international activity, trends, upcoming changes to regulations effecting import and export operations, international trade environment, etc.
- Manage Export compliance program and filer's
- Responsible/oversee HTS classifications for imported products and components
- Responsible/oversee ECCN determinations and Export License determinations/ license application process
- Responsible/oversee NAFTA and other applicable FTA's determinations, and manage related documentation for imported/exported goods
- The ability to travel for long distances by car and air
- Must be able to operate a vehicle in a safe manner

Qualifications:

- U.S. Customs Broker's License (if not currently licensed, candidate must obtain LCB within 5 years) preferred
- Bachelor's Degree in Engineering preferred
- Extensive experience and knowledge of power generation and/or marine engineering preferred
- Extensive international trade experience, focusing on both import and export trade compliance matters
- Extensive experience in logistics
- Extensive knowledge and SME in all related import and export regulations including, but not limited to: U.S. Customs Regulations; Export Administration Regulations; Office of Foreign Assets Controls Regulations; Foreign Trade Regulations; and International Traffic in Arms Regulations
- Exceptional oral and written communication, presentation, and interpersonal skills enabling communication with professionals and employees at all levels within the organization
- Demonstrated ability to deliver novel and practical solutions to solve complex compliance/international logistics issues
- HTS classification expertise
- Free Trade Agreement experience preferred
- Experience managing Customs Brokers and Freight Forwarder's regarding compliance activities

Apply Now